Terms & Conditions regarding COVID

At Blooms by Katey, we have decided to put together a document with important terms & condition guidelines regarding your wedding day & the continuation of COVID. As a small business, we can not afford to take on any excess costs. These terms & conditions are to be read & signed by every couple with the conditions in place from Friday the 6th of August 2021 until further notice.

PLEASE READ THE INFORMATION PROVIDED BELOW

Terms & Condition:

1. Prices are current & subject to change up until two weeks prior to your wedding date if the prices of flowers & foliage are affected by COVID (unlikely but not impossible)
2. All couples have up until two weeks prior to their wedding date to make any changes to their flower order (unless it goes under the minimum spend)
3. All couples have up until three days prior to their wedding date (not including the wedding day date) to make a final decision as to whether their wedding will go ahead without any charges (e.g if your wedding is on Saturday the 4th, you have up until Wednesday the 1st)
4. Couples who decide to postpone their wedding date after the three day mark (not including the wedding day date), will have to cover the wholesale flower cost & collection fee as your order will have been delivered to the wholesaler warehouse.
5. Couple who decide to postpone their wedding date after the two day mark (not including the wedding day date), will have to cover the wholesale flower cost, collection fee & preparation labour fee as preparation for your wedding day starts two days prior to your wedding date (e.g preparation for wedding on Saturday the 3rd start on Thursday the 1st)
6. There are no extra fees for changing your date however if you do decide to cancel your wedding due to COVID there is a cancellation fee of $100.00 to cover admin, consultations & behind the scenes preparation work
7. If you cancel your wedding without a reasonable COVID reason, your deposit will not be refunded. We may ask for you to provide proof of cancellation from your celebrant.
